

Health Safety Environment and Quality Policy

Manna Building is a leading fitout specialist company servicing a wide range of industries including office and commercial premises, retail chains as well as franchises and hospitality.

Manna Building is committed to:

- providing high quality products and services to our customers
- encourage employees to participate in quality improvement activities
- the protection of the environment, including the prevention of pollution
- providing safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work-related injury and ill health
- eliminating hazards and reducing health and safety risks from our activities, products and services, so far as is reasonably practicable
- investigating incidents to prevent recurrence by implementing and reviewing corrective and preventive actions
- maintaining, measuring, reporting and reviewing measurable objectives and targets
- complying with applicable legislative and compliance obligations
- implementing, maintaining and continuously improving our integrated management system to enhance performance
- consulting with our workers, their representatives and other relevant persons, and ensuring their participation in improving, matters affecting their health and safety.
- providing adequate resources to achieve the intent of this policy, objectives and targets and all elements of our integrated management system

Our workers shall:

- present for work in a safe and fit manner
- take reasonable care that their acts or omissions do not adversely affect their health and safety, or that of other persons
- report incidents and unsafe practices to the relevant Manna Building representative
- comply with Manna Building integrated management system documentation, training and instruction

This Health Safety Environment and Quality Policy shall:

- be available as documented information and to interested parties as appropriate
- be communicated within Manna Building

I commit Manna Building activities, products and services to this policy.

Michael Hanna

Managing Director, Manna Building